

Comparison Table of Luke 19:12-27 and Matthew 25:14-30

Question \ Scripture	Luke 19:12-27	Matthew 25:14-30
No. of servants receiving initial funds
No. of servants who returned to face the Master
The amounts of initial funds	each	, ,
Approx. equivalent wages (note: some scriptures have different measurements)	3 months	75, 30, 15 years
Relative ratios of value (Matthew vs. Luke, Luke's mina = 1)		300x, 120x, 60x
Financial gains made by the two faithful servants (amount of money)	, minas	, talents
Servants' gains compared to the initial funds (multiple or percentage)	, ,	, ,
The total amount of funds that should be in the hands of the servants when they first returned (initial funds + their gains)	, , minas	, , talents
Are the master's rewards for the two faithful servants same or different?
How are the rewards for the two faithful servants different?
The total amount of funds in the hands of the first servant at the time of the Master's evaluation	read v.24-25 carefully	read v.28 carefully
Do the faithful servants get to keep their initial funds?	read v.24-25 carefully	read v.28 carefully